Kansas Shrine Bowl Set to Head West

The Kansas Shrine Bowl will be played in Dodge City for the first time in 2019

KANSAS- Final preparations are being made as the state's premiere high school all-star football game turns its sights on Dodge City, Kansas. For the first time in the game's forty-five-year history, the Kansas Shrine Bowl will be played in Dodge City. "Dodge City submitted a great bid a few years ago," said B.J. Harris, Executive Director of the Kansas Shrine Bowl. "They have fulfilled every commitment and gone above and beyond to make our 46th annual game a success."

So much more than a game, the Kansas Shrine Bowl is a major event. Beyond the football teams, the Kansas Shrine Bowl also executes a cheer camp featuring more than one hundred and fifty participants participating in a four-day camp. This year will also mark the 36th Annual Kansas Masonic All-State Marching Band Camp, with more than one hundred and fifty high school students from across the state of Kansas participating in the five-day camp. Both the cheer camp and band camp will be housed at Dodge City Community College. "Dodge City Community College, USD 443, the Dodge City CVB and the City of Dodge City have all been great partners," said Harris. "I'm confident our participants will have a safe and fun experience."

In addition to the camps there are several events for the public. Those events begin Friday, June 6th at 9 a.m. with a four-man scramble at Mariah Hills Golf Course. The event is $60 per person and you can register at www.kansasshrinebowl.com/golf.
